The Paul / Timothy Covenant

Every college recruit, every professional player of every sport, every groom and every bride, and every successful team endeavor begins with a contract and terms of the covenant.

The “Baton of Faith” that will change the world for the Kingdom rests in your hands. This study is the exchange zone. We will win this race and God’s Kingdom will be known by every person, every tribe and every nation if the Baton is never dropped.

By entering into this “leg” of the race you are entering into a covenant with God and thousands of believers worldwide that you will continue to pass the “Baton of Faith” securely into the hands of others as we “love a man to Jesus until he’s ready to love another man to Jesus.”

I, _____, covenant to be your “Paul.” I will pray for you and serve you. I will meet with you, study with you and seek to co-labor with the Holy Spirit to impart these truths into your life so that you will be able to impart these truths into the lives of others.

I, _____, covenant to be your “Timothy.” I will pray for you and diligently study with you and pursue this training process until completion. I will further agree to take this “Baton of Faith” and pass it to another and another as I fulfill my calling in “The Great Commission.”
